

SINGAPORE AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL CLUB SONG

The Wombats won again today Hooray! Hooray!
We proved that we're a better side today, today
We knocked them down
We drunk their blood
And then we rubbed them in the mud
We'll be victors in the new millenium

There's never been a side like us before, before
When we go down we get right up and fight some more
And every one of us are mates
The others take it up the date
We'll be victors in the new millenium
